Croatian participation in the London Book Fair, March 12-14, 2024.

Since 2018, Sandorf and the Public Institution "Mljet National Park" (JUNP) have been collaborating on Sandorf's European project "Ulysses' Shelter" (supported by the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union), an international network of literary residencies which has so far hosted around seventy mostly young, promising writers, poets, and translators from all over Europe in eight partner countries (Croatia, Slovenia, Greece, the United Kingdom, the Czech Republic, Serbia, Malta, and Spain). Mljet has hosted around twenty authors, who in turn were delighted with the island's nature, hospitality, great conditions for creative work and the unique atmosphere, largely thanks to the support of the Mljet National Park, which in the first two cycles of the project (2018-2022) provided space for accommodation, as well as logistical assistance with other needs of the residents during their stay on the island.

Sandorf and JUNP Mljet have planned a joint appearance at the two largest European book fairs: the London and Frankfurt fairs, which are held in March and October respectively every year. The joint presentation will showcase both the "Ulysses' Shelter" project and the natural and cultural heritage of the Mljet National
